

Im against the "Localism" campaign because it would probably make me unable to hear AIR1 - my favorite radio station. Air1 gives me a boost during the day and it gives me positive music all the time. The local community would be badly effected if Air1 was replaced by a LPFM station. Air1 is a public interest because it helps and witnesses to others and it also a service to others in ways I can't even begin to say.